

vimentin effect under each test (positive = more in the milder group); controls and calibrators should sit near 0

